

SunSentinel

Blooming BASH winds down social season

April 12, 2017, 1:51 PM

Help celebrate another successful season of impacting the lives of foster care children.

Best Foot Forward's Blooming BASH will take place at 7 p.m. April 22 at Polo Club of Boca Raton, 5400 Champions Blvd.

The evening will include cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, dinner, dancing, and live and silent auctions.

Robert Avossa, superintendent of the Palm Beach County School District, will be the guest speaker. CBS 12 news anchor Liz Quirantes will emcee the evening, and a former foster youth will share their story.

The evening will spotlight the support of Bloomingdale's.

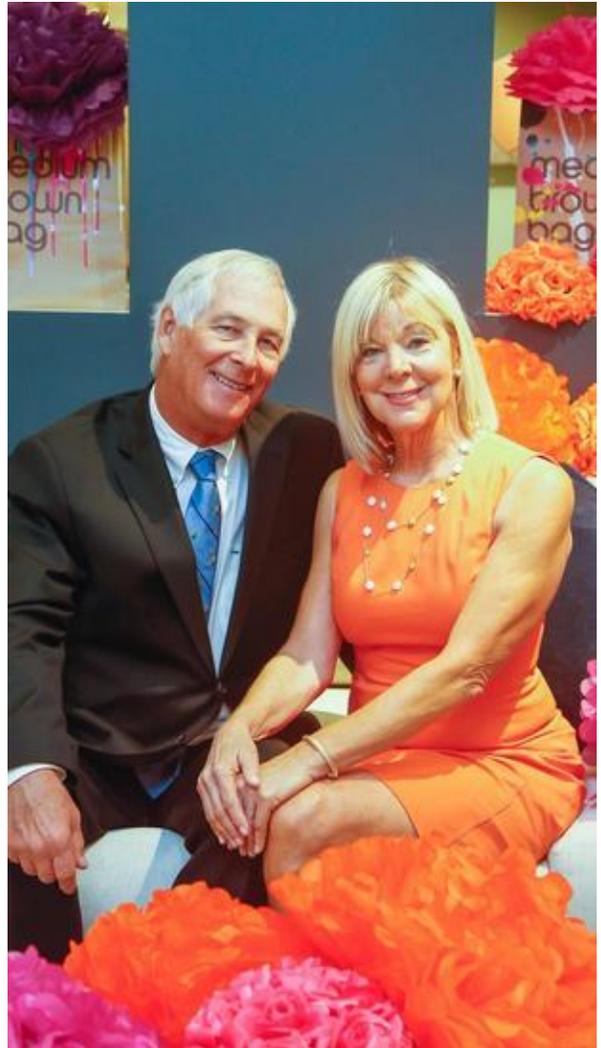

"This will be a memorable evening, and we hope to raise a significant amount of money to support our important and diverse programs," said Donna Biase, co-founder of Best Foot Forward.

Top sponsors are Laura and Shaw McCutcheon, The Leder Foundation - Lisa Leder & Andrew Levine, Trend Capital Management LP, Ascent Medical Group, Sun Capital Partners Foundation, Bloomingdale's and Cristino Fine Jewelry.

Best Foot Forward is a community-based organization created to improve educational outcomes for abused, neglected and abandoned children living in and aging out of foster care in Palm Beach County. The organization aims to ensure educational success to counterweight the negative effects of abuse and neglect.

Tickets are $150.

For more information, call 561-470-8300 or visit www.bestfoot.org.

Help celebrate another successful season of impacting the lives of foster care children. Best Foot Forward's Blooming BASH will take place at Polo Club of Boca Raton. (Zak Bennett)